A waiver of any right or remedy under this Contract is only effective if given in writing.

No failure or delay unless otherwise stated in GCC FIDIC Clause 8.4 by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

Any waiver of any breach of this Contract shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach (whether of a like or different character).

1.22 Severability

Sub-Clause 1.22 is added to read as follows:

If any provision of this Contract shall be found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, the invalidity or unenforceability of such provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Contract and all provisions not affected by such invalidity or unenforceability shall remain in full force and effect.

The Parties hereby agree to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a valid or enforceable provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the economic, legal and commercial objectives of the invalid or unenforceable provision.

Clause 2 The Employer

2.1 Right of Access to the Site

The first paragraph of Sub-Clause 2.1 is amended as follows:

The Employer shall give the Contractor right of access to, and possession of, all parts of the Site within the time thirty (30) days before the Commencement Date. The right and possession may not be exclusive to the Contractor. If, under the Contract, the Employer is required to give (to the Contractor) possession of any foundation, structure, plant or means of access, the Employer shall do so in the time and manner stated in the Employer's Requirements. However, the Employer may withhold any such right of possession until the Performance Guarantee has been received.

The second paragraph of sub clause 2.1 is deleted.

Sub clause 2.1(b) is deleted.

The last paragraph of clause 2.1 is amended as follows:

However, if and to the extent that the Employer's failure was caused by any error or delay by the Contractor, including an error in, or delay in the submission of, any of the Contractor's Documents, the Contractor shall not be entitled to such extension of time.

2.2 Permits, Licences or Approvals

Sub-Clause 2.2 is amended to read as follows:

The Employer shall (where he is in a position to do so) provide reasonable assistance to the Contractor at the request of the Contractor:

(a) by obtaining copies of the Laws of the Country which are relevant to the Contract but are not readily available, and

(b) for the Contractor's applications for any permits (including residence Permit and work permit), licences or approvals required by the Laws of the Country:
   (i) which the Contractor is required to obtain under Sub-Clause 1.13 [Compliance with Laws],
   (ii) for the delivery of Goods, construction materials, machinery and equipment including clearance through customs, and
   (iii) for the export of Contractor's Equipment when it is removed from the Site.

2.6 Obligations of the Employer

Sub-Clause 2.6 is added to clause 2 as follows:

The Employer shall be responsible for:

Ensuring that the financing agreement between the Contractor and the MOF is signed.

Ensuring that all payment shall be paid to the Contractor by MOF as per the Financing Agreement.

Providing and handing over the Site for the Project to the Contractor.

Providing all necessary assistance and arrangement for the repatriation of the personnel so affected to the port of embarkation in Ghana in the event of any accident, industrial injury, casualty, disease or death to the Contractor’s personnel during the construction period.

The taxes and bank charges, which may occur during the transaction.

Obtaining all the taxes, duties, fees, and levies exemptions, including but not limited to Ghanaian VAT, NHIL, GETF, import duties, withholding tax and levies exemptions for the Contractor, its Subcontractor and its subsidiaries for all sums payable in relation to carrying out the works subject to this Contract.

Clause 4 The Contractor

4.1 Contractor’s General Obligations
Sub-Clause 4.1 is amended to add the following clauses:

The Contractor shall subcontract up to 20 million US Dollars of contract works to qualified subcontractors to be nominated by the Employer and certified by the Contractor.

The Contractor shall provide construction machinery and equipment necessary for the Project, and this machinery and equipment shall remain the property of the Contractor.

The Contractor shall procure all materials necessary for the Project to the construction site.

The Contractor shall dispatch necessary professionals to Ghana to ensure the successful completion of the Project.

The Contractor shall be responsible for handling, shipping and insurance matters for construction materials, machinery, equipment and necessaries of the Contractor from the port of departure to the port of discharge.

The Contractor shall provide life insurance policy cover in China for the Contractor's professionals working on the project.

The Contractor shall transport Contractor's materials purchased locally and machinery and equipment from place of purchase or port of discharge to the construction sites.

The Contractor shall protect the surrounding environment while implementing the Project.

The Contractor shall ensure that all goods shipped by the Contractor shall be sea worthy shipment packaged and be properly bound, printed with necessary shipment/handling marks per each package and labelled with markings made by non-fading paint on each package.

The Contractor shall send the bills of lading, packing list and proforma invoice to the consignee of the Employer by express mail after the departure of the vessel from Chinese port with construction machinery, materials and goods of the Contractor.

4.2 Performance Guarantee

Within Fifteen (15) business days of receipt of notification of the contract award, the Contractor shall furnish the Employer with an unconditional performance guarantee. The performance guarantee shall be five (5) percent of the contract price. The proceeds of the performance guarantee shall be payable to the Employer as compensation for any loss that may result from the Contractor's failure to complete its performance obligations under this Agreement. The Performance Guarantee shall be denominated in the currency of this Agreement and shall be a Bank Guarantee. The Performance Guarantee shall expire at the end of the Warranty Period.

Clause 5 Nominated Subcontractors

5.1 Definition of "nominated Subcontractor"
Sub-Clause 5.1 is amended to read as follows:

In the contract "nominated Subcontractor" means a qualified subcontractor to be nominated by the Employer and certified by the Contractor.

Clause 6  Staff and Labour

6.1 Engagement of Staff and Labour

Sub-Clause 6.1 is amended to read as follows:

The Contractor shall employ local labour in accordance with Project requirements and Ghana Labour laws.

Clause 20
Claims, Disputes and Arbitration

Clause 20 is amended in its entirety as follows:

20.1 Dispute Resolution
i. If a dispute of any kind whatsoever arises between the Employer and the Contractor in connection with, or arising out of, the Contract or the execution of the Works, the matter shall be settled amicably by either Mediation or Negotiation.

ii. Without prejudice to the other provisions of Clause 20, the Parties to the dispute may seek to resolve any dispute by negotiations among senior executives (being individuals who have authority to settle the dispute for the Party) (each, a “Senior Executive”). Within thirty (30) days after the date of the receipt by each Party to the dispute of the Notice of Dispute, which notice may request negotiations among Senior Executives, the Senior Executives representing the parties to the dispute shall meet at a mutually acceptable time and place to exchange relevant information in an attempt to resolve the dispute.

iii. If a Senior Executive intends to be accompanied at the meeting by an Attorney, each other Party’s Senior Executive shall be given notice of such intention at least three (3) Business Days in advance and may also be accompanied at the meeting by an attorney.
iv. A Party who desires to submit a dispute for resolution shall commence the dispute resolution process by providing a notice of dispute to the other Party (a “Notice of Dispute”). The Notice of Dispute shall contain a brief statement of the nature of the Dispute and the relief requested.

v. Except to the extent a dispute is resolved either by: (i) Expert determination as provided in Clause 20.2; or (ii) under Clause 20.3; the parties to the dispute agree that any dispute shall be referred to and finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) (the “Rules”) in force at the commencement of the arbitration (pursuant to the Rules) and as modified by this Clause 20.2, which Rules shall be deemed incorporated into this clause. Unless the parties to the Dispute agree to a sole arbitrator within 30 days after the commencement of arbitration, the arbitration shall be conducted by three (3) arbitrators. If the parties to the Dispute choose three (3) arbitrators, two (2) arbitrators (one nominated by the claimant and one nominated by the respondent) shall be selected within forty-five (45) days of the commencement of arbitration and the third, who shall act as President, shall be nominated by the two party-nominated arbitrators, provided that if the third arbitrator has not been nominated within thirty (30) days of the nomination of the second party-nominated arbitrator, such third arbitrator shall be appointed by UNCITRAL Court, provided that where all the Parties are parties to the Dispute, each Party shall nominate one arbitrator and the arbitrators shall elect of their number, one as President. The seat of arbitration shall be London and the language of arbitration shall be English. Each Party to the Arbitration shall bear their own costs. The arbitral award shall be final and binding on the Parties.

vi. The arbitral award shall be made and payable in United State dollars, free of any tax or other deduction.

20.2 Expert Determination.

i. If any dispute arises under this Contract between the Employer and the Contractor with respect to compliance with technical specification, whether a particular quality of standard has been reached or the value of an item, a relevant Party may refer the matter to an Expert for determination. Where a Party wishes to refer a dispute to Expert determination, it shall give notice to the other relevant Party to the dispute of the request for Expert determination (the “Request for Expert Determination”).

ii. Where a Request for Expert Determination is made by a Party, the relevant Parties hereby agree that such determination shall be conducted expeditiously by an Expert. The Expert is not an arbitrator of the dispute and shall be deemed to be acting in an arbitral capacity.

iii. The United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) shall administer the Expert Determination through the UNCITRAL Rules for Expertise ("Rules for Expertise") as in force at the commencement of the Expert Determination and these Rules shall be deemed incorporated into this clause.

iv. If the Parties to the dispute are unable to agree upon an Expert within ten (10) days after receipt of the Request for Expert Determination, then, upon the request by any of the Parties to the dispute, The United Nations Commission on International Trade Law shall appoint such Expert.

v. Before issuing a final decision, the Expert shall issue a draft report and allow the Parties to the dispute to comment on it. The Expert shall try to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days (but not later than sixty (60) days) after his or her appointment, taking into account the circumstances requiring an expeditious resolution of the matter in dispute. The Expert's decision shall be final and binding on the Parties to the dispute.

20.3 Confidentiality
All negotiations, mediation, arbitration, and Expert determinations relating to a dispute (including a settlement resulting from negotiation or mediation, an arbitral award, documents exchanged or produced during a mediation or arbitration proceedings, and memorials, briefs or other documents prepared for the arbitration) are confidential and may not be disclosed by the Parties to the dispute, their employees, officers, directors, counsel, consultants, and Expert witnesses, except to the extent necessary to enforce any settlement Contract, arbitration award, or Expert determination, to enforce other rights of a Party, as required by Law; provided, that, that breach of this confidentiality provision shall not void any settlement, Expert determination or award.

20.4 Notice
Any papers, notices, or process necessary or proper for an arbitration under this Contract, or any court action in connection with an arbitration or an award, maybe served on a Party by registered or certified mail, courier, facsimile transmission or any other means of communication that provides a record of the receipt thereof (but not by email) provided that a reasonable opportunity to be heard with regard to the court action is or has been granted to the Party.

20.5 Performance to Continue During Dispute
Performance of this Contract shall continue during arbitration proceedings or any other dispute resolution mechanism pursuant to Clause 20. No payment due or payable by the Employer or the Contractor shall be withheld on account of a pending reference to arbitration or other dispute resolution mechanism except to the extent that such amount of the payment is the subject of such dispute. All undisputed amounts must continue to be paid in the manner specified.
