ACT
OF THE PARLIAMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA ENTITLED
GAMING ACT, 2006

AN ACT to revise and consolidate the laws relating to casinos and other gaming activities other than lottery and to provide generally for ancillary matters concerning the gaming industry.

DATE OF ASSENT: 22nd December, 2006.

ENACTED by the President and Parliament:

PART I—GAMING AND BETTING

The Gaming Commission

Section 1—Application

This Act does not apply to National Lotto.

Section 2—Establishment of the Gaming Commission

(1) There is established by this Act a Gaming Commission.

[sic]

(3) The Commission is a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(4) The Commission, for the discharge of its functions may acquire and hold any movable or immovable property and enter into a contract or other transaction.

(5) Where there is hindrance to the acquisition of property the property may be acquired for the Commission under the State Property and Contracts Act, 1960 (C.A. 6) or the State Lands Act, 1962 (Act 125) and the costs shall be borne by the Commission.

Section 3—Object and functions of the Commission

(1) The object of the Commission is to regulate, control, monitor and supervise the operation of games of chance in the country.

(2) To achieve the object, the Commission shall

(a) make proposals for the formulation of policies on games of chance in the country;

(b) license companies that want to operate casinos and any other game of chance;

- (c) serve as an advisory body to Government on betting activities in the country;
- (d) receive complaints from companies and the public on matters pertaining to games of chance;
- (e) monitor and secure the implementation of laws on casinos and any other game of chance;
- (f) determine the minimum bankroll and ensure that licence holders keep and maintain the minimum bankroll provided for under section 23; and
- (g) perform any other functions related to games of chance that the Minister for the Interior may determine.

Section 4—Governing body of the Commission

[sic]The governing body of the Commission is a board consisting of

- (a) the chairperson,
- (b) one representative of each of the following;
 - (i) the Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning,
 - (ii) the Police Service not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner,
 - (iii) the Ministry of Local Government and Rural Development,
 - (iv) the Ministry of the interior,
 - (v) the Ministry of Tourism, and
 - (vi) the Revenue Agencies Governing Board,
- (c) the Games Commissioner appointed under section 65, and
- (d) three other persons nominated by the President.

(2) The Members of the Board including the chairperson shall be appointed by the President in accordance with article 70 of the Constitution.

Section 5—Tenure of office of members

- (1) A member of the Board, shall hold office for a term not exceeding four years and is eligible for re-appointment but shall not be appointed to the Board for more than two terms in succession.
- (2) A member may at any time resign from office in writing addressed to the President through the Minister.
- (3) A member, other than the Games Commissioner, who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board without sufficient cause ceases to be a member of the Board.
- (4) The President may by letter addressed to a member revoke the appointment of that member.

Section 6—Meetings of the Board

- (1) The Board shall meet at least once every three months for the dispatch of business at the times and in the places that the Board may determine.
- (2) The chairperson may convene a special meeting of the Board and shall upon the request of not less than one-third of the members convene a special meeting of the Board.
- (3) The chairperson shall preside at meetings of the Board and in the absence of the chairperson a member of the Board elected by the members present from among their number shall preside.
- (4) The quorum for a meeting of the Board is five members and includes the Games Commissioner.
- (5) Matters before the board shall be determined by a majority of the members present and voting and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.
- (6) The Board may co-opt a person to attend its meetings as an advisor but a person co-opted is not entitled to vote on a matter for decision at the meeting.
- (7) The validity of the proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by a vacancy among its members or by a defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.
- (8) Except as otherwise provided for in this section, the Board shall regulate its own proceedings in consultation with the Minister responsible for Finance.

Section 7—Disclosure of interest

- (1) A member of the Board who has an interest in a matter for consideration by the Board shall disclose in writing the nature of that interest and is disqualified from participating in the deliberations of the Board in respect of that matter.
- (2) A member of the Board who contravenes subsection (1) ceases to be a member.

Section 8—Establishment of committees of the Board

The Board may establish a committee consisting of members of the Board or non-members or both to perform a function of the Board.

Section 9—Regional and District Offices

The Commission may have Regional and District Offices.

Section 10—Allowances

A member of the Board, a member of a committee of the Board and a person co-opted to any meeting of the Board shall be paid allowances that the Minister may determine in consultation with the Minister[sic] responsible for Finance.

Section 11—Filling of vacancies

- (1) The chairperson of the Board shall through the Minister notify the President of vacancies that occur in the membership of the Board within one month of the occurrence.
- (2) The President on being notified of a vacancy shall request the appropriate body to nominate another person for appointment.

(3) Where the vacant position is that of the chairperson, the Minister shall notify the President who shall in consultation with the Council of State appoint a new chairperson.

Section 12—Directions of the Minister

The Minister may give to the Board directives on matters of policy and the Board shall comply.

Licence

Section 13—Requirement of licence

Except as otherwise provided in this Act, a person shall not operate a game of chance if that person is not

- (a) a limited liability company, and
- (b) licensed by the Board to operate a specified game of chance.

Section 25—Dishonoured cheques

(1) If a cheque issued to a winner of a game of chance for the payment of the win is dishonoured, the winner shall immediately inform the licence holder who issued the cheque that the cheque has been dishonoured and the licence holder shall within twenty-four hours

(a) inform the Board in writing or by electronic means copied to the winner of the dishonoured cheque, and

(b) pay the winner the sum due by banker's draft or cash, whichever is appropriate.

(2) Where a licence holder fails

(a) to inform the Commission of the dishonoured cheque for the payment of a win, or

(b) to pay the winner the sum due within the time specified in subsection (1), the winner may within seven days after the expiration of the twenty-four hours, give notice in writing to the Commission and the Commission shall ensure the payment of the win by the licence holder within forty-eight hours, if that is possible, and impose sanctions that it considers appropriate under section 24.

Section 26—Records

(1) A licensed company shall keep records of its operations as prescribed by the Commission and any other law.

(2) The company shall make its records available for inspection by an authorised officer of the Commission and any financial intelligence unit established by law.

Section 27—Inspectors and power of entry

(1) The Board may appoint inspectors to perform its functions under this Act.

(2) An inspector authorised by the Board may enter premises or a place used or suspected to be used for a game of chance at a reasonable time to investigate activities there and make a report to the Board.

(3) The authorised inspector may inspect

(a) the licence, books and machines for the game of chance,

(b) the premises and facilities in the premises, and

(c) any other thing which is relevant to the investigation.

(4) The inspector shall produce the inspector's authorisation at the request of the person responsible for the game of chance.

(5) A police officer not below the rank of Assistant Superintendent may enter premises if that officer has reasonable cause to believe that an offence with respect to this Act has been or is being committed on the premises.

(6) The Board may order the seizure of a machine used for a game of chance or the temporary closure of a licensed company in the presence of a police officer, if it considers it in the public interest to do so.

Miscellaneous games of chance

Section 28—Games of chance incidental to certain entertainment

(1) A game of chance promoted as an incident of a bazaar, sale of work, fete or other entertainment of a similar character whether limited to one day or extending over two or more days is lawful and does not require a licence if the conditions specified in subsection (3) are observed in connection with the promotion and conduct of the game.

(2) Where a condition under subsection (3) is broken, the game becomes an unlawful game and a person concerned with the promotion or the conduct of the game commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than one thousand penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than three years or both unless that person proves that there was no ground for knowing that the game had become unlawful.

(3) The conditions referred to in subsection[sic] (1) and (2) are that

(a) the prizes in the game are not money prizes,

(b) the total value of the prizes does not exceed five hundred million cedis,

(c) the whole proceeds of the entertainment including the proceeds of the game after deducting

(i) the expenses for prizes, in connection with the game; and

(ii) the expenses incurred in printing tickets for the game are to be used for a charitable or sporting purpose,

(d) the facilities offered to participate in the game are not the only or a substantial inducement to a person to attend the entertainment, and

(e) the result of the game is to be declared only on the premises on which the entertainment takes place and during the progress of the entertainment.

(4) No part of the proceeds of a game under this section shall be used for private gain.

(5) The same promoter shall not promote more than one game of chance for the same purpose within a period of three months under this section.

Section 29—Game of chance by a society

(1) A society may promote a game of chance if the sale of tickets by the society is confined to

(a) members of the society and the society is established and conducted for purposes other than for gaming or betting,

(b) persons who work on the same premises, or

(c) persons who reside on the same premises, and if the promoter of the game is authorised in writing by the governing board of the society for that purpose.

(2) In this section, "society" includes a club, institution, organisation or other association of individuals called by any name and each local affiliated branch or section of a society is to be regarded as a separate distinct society.

(3) A game under this section does not require a licence if the following conditions are observed in connection with the promotion and conduct of the game:

(a) the whole proceeds, after deducting expenses incurred for printing and stationery, is devoted to

(i) the provision of prizes for purchasers of tickets, or

(ii) in the case of a game promoted for the members of a society, either to the provision of prizes or to purposes of the society or partly to the provision of prizes and partly to purposes of the society;

(b) the only matter exhibited, published or distributed in respect of the game is

(i) a notice exhibited on the premises of the society for whose members it is promoted, or on the premises on which the persons for whom it is promoted work or reside, and

(ii) an announcement or advertisement contained in the tickets;

(c) the price of each ticket is the same, and the price of a ticket is stated on the ticket;

(d) a ticket bears on the face of it,

(i) the names and addresses of each of the promoters,

(ii) a statement of the persons to whom the sale is restricted, and

(iii) a statement that a prize won in the game shall not be paid or delivered by the promoters to any person other than the persons to whom the winning ticket was sold;

(e) a prize won is paid or delivered only in accordance with the statements in paragraph (d);

(f) the promoters issue or allot tickets

(i) only through sale,

(ii) upon receipt of the price which is stated on the ticket, and

(iii) no money or valuable thing received by a promoter is returned in any circumstances other than those specified in paragraph (g);

(g) money or any valuable thing received by a promoter in respect of the sale of a ticket may be returned to the purchaser

(i) if it was not received by the promoter on or before the advertised closing date, or

(ii) if a closing date is not advertised, before the selection of the winning ticket, and
(iii) if the ticket in respect of which the money or valuable consideration was received, was not included among the tickets from which the winning ticket was selected.

(4) If any of the conditions specified in subsection (3) is broken, the game becomes an unlawful game and

(a) each of the promoters of the game, and

(b) where the person by whom the condition is broken is not one of the promoters, that person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than one thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term of not more than three years or both.

(5) It is a defence for a person charged only by reason of being a promoter to prove that the person was not in a position to know that the game had become unlawful.

Section 30—Tickets and other documents

For the purpose of sections 28 and 29,

(a) "ticket" includes, in relation to a game or proposed game, a document which is evidence of the claim of a person to participate in the chances of the game, and

(b) documents or other matters are distributed if they are distributed to persons whether within or outside the country.

Section 31—Forfeiture

Where a person is convicted of an offence under sections 28 and 29 the court may order forfeiture of money collected by or on behalf of that person on the sale of tickets and of any instrument or thing used in the game in connection with which the offence was committed.

Conditions for gaming and betting

Section 32—Gaming and betting subject to Act

A person shall not carry out gaming and betting except in accordance with this Act.

Section 33—Unlawful gaming

(1) Gaming is unlawful if by reason of the nature of the game, the chances of all the players, including the banker are not equal.

(2) Gaming is lawful if no stake is hazarded by the players with the promoter or banker other than a charge for the right to take part in the game and if

(a) only one charge is made in respect of the day on which the game is played,

(b) the charge is the same for all the players, and

(c) the promoter does not derive personal profit from the promotion of the game.

(3) A person who takes part in, or promotes or provides facilities for unlawful gaming commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than five hundred penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than two years or both.

Section 34—Gaming in public

A person who

- (a) carries on gaming or bets in a public place, or
- (b) plays a game or pretended game of chance at a table or with a card, coin, token or other article used as an instrument or means of betting or gaming which is not approved for betting and gaming by the Board, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than five hundred penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than two years or both.

Section 35—Gaming houses

(1) An owner or occupier of a house or a person who has the use of a house, room or place who

- (a) opens, keeps or uses it as a gaming house,
- (b) knowingly permits it to be opened, kept or used by another person for gaming, or
- (c) cares for or manages or in any manner assists in conducting the business of a house, room or place opened, kept or used for gaming, without the approval of the Board commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than five hundred penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than two years or both.

(2) A person, other than a person mentioned in subsection (1), found in an unapproved gaming house shall be considered to be there for the purpose of playing a game of chance for money or moneys worth and that person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than twelve months.

Section 36—Betting houses

(1) A house, room or place is called a betting house if

- (a) bets are made in the house, room or place between persons who go there and
 - (i) the owner, occupier, or keeper of the place or a person using the place,
 - (ii) a person employed or acting for or on behalf of the owner, occupier or keeper, or the person who uses the place, or
 - (iii) a person who is responsible for its management or in any manner conducting the business of the place; or

(b) money or other property is paid or received in that house, room or place by or on behalf of the owner, occupier or keeper, or the person who uses the place

- (i) for an assurance, undertaking, promise, or agreement, express or implied, to pay or give money or other property on an event or contingency of or relating to a horse race, or other race, fight, game, sport or exercise, or

(ii) to secure the payment or giving by some other person of money or other property on an event or contingency relating to a horse race or other race, fight, game, sport or exercise.

(2) The owner or occupier of a house, room or place who without approval of the Commission, knowingly and wilfully permits it to be opened, kept or used as a betting house by another person or a person who manages or assists in conducting the business of a betting house which has not been approved by the Commission, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than five hundred penalty units or imprisonment for a term of not more than two years or both.

Section 37—Cheating in gaming

A person who

- (a) in promoting or assisting in promoting a game,
- (b) in acting as banker of those who play, or
- (c) in playing at, or in betting on an event, a game, sport, pastime or exercise

cheats or wins from another person or causes or procures a person to win from another person anything through fraud or defrauding by false pretences commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not less than two hundred penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than three years or both.

Agreement by way of gaming or betting

Section 38—Gaming and betting agreements void

- (1) An agreement in respect of gaming or betting is void.
- (2) For the purpose of this section an agreement
 - (a) to pay a sum of money or to deliver a valuable thing alleged to have been won on a bet or by gaming;
 - (b) by which two or more persons deposit a sum of money or valuable thing with a person in order to earn a prize based on the result of
 - (i) an event on which a bet has been placed, or
 - (ii) a game; or
 - (c) by a person to indemnify an agent for any liability incurred by the agent in respect of an agreement concerning gaming or betting; is an agreement in respect of betting or gaming.

(3) This section does not prevent a person to claim the return of a sum of money or valuable thing which that person may have deposited with another person before that other person has paid or delivered the valuable thing in accordance with the instructions of the depositor.

(4) For the purpose of this section, an agreement to subscribe for or contribute towards a prize, whether in money or otherwise, to be awarded to the winner of a lawful game is not an agreement in respect of betting or gaming.

Section 39—Security in respect of gaming and betting

A security given by a person in respect of anything won by a lawful game, bet or lottery shall be considered to have been given without consideration, and a security given by a person in respect of anything won by an unlawful game or lottery shall be considered to have been given for unlawful consideration.

Section 40—Loans for gaming or betting

(1) An agreement by which a person lends money to another person and security given in respect of that loan shall not be void because the loan is used or is required to be used for gaming or betting or participating in a lottery or for discharging a debt whether valid or not, incurred through gaming or betting or participating in a lottery.

(2) This section does not apply to an agreement by which a person knowingly lends money for an unlawful purpose.

PART II—GAMBLING MACHINES

Section 41—Importation of gambling machines

(1) A person other than the National Lottery Authority shall not import a gambling machine into the country without the prior written consent of the Board.

(2) An application for consent shall be made in the form contained in the First Schedule and shall be accompanied by a fee of ₪500,000 or a higher fee determined by the Board with the approval of the Minister.

(3) The consent shall be in addition to the requirements of any other law relating to importation.

Section 42—Control of sales and hire

(1) A person shall not sell, let, hire or in any way dispose of a gambling machine or an interest in a gambling machine to any other person without the prior written consent of the Board.

(2) An application for consent under this section shall be made in the form contained in the Second Schedule.

Section 43—Licensing of gambling machines

(1) A person other than the National Lottery Authority shall not install or operate a gambling machine except in accordance with a licence granted by the Board under this Act.

(2) An application for a licence under this section shall be made by the owner of the gambling machine in the form contained in the Third Schedule and shall be accompanied by a fee of the cedi equivalent of US$1000 or a fee determined by the Board with prior approval of the Minister.

(3) A separate application shall be submitted in respect of each machine.

(4) A licence granted under this section is not transferable and does not authorise a person other than the person named in the licence to install or operate the gambling machine.

Section 44—Duration of licence

(1) A licence granted under section 43 is valid for twelve months from the date of issue and may be renewed on payment of an annual fee of ₪3 million or a fee determined by the Board with the prior approval of the Minister.

(2) On the expiry of a licence granted under section 43, the licensee shall within seven days surrender the licence to the Board.

Section 45—Conditions of a licence

(1) A licence granted under section 43 is subject to the terms and conditions that the Board may specify in the licence.

(2) The Board may in writing revoke or add to the terms or conditions of a licence as the Board considers appropriate.

Section 46—Revocation of gambling machine licence

The Board may revoke a licence granted under section 43 if

(a) the Board is satisfied that the licensee has contravened or failed to comply with the terms or conditions of the licence or a requirement of this Act,

(b) the Board is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so; or

(c) the licensee is convicted of an offence in relation to a gambling machine.

Section 47—Restriction on use of machine

A person shall not install or operate a gambling machine except at a place approved for that purpose by the Board.

Section 48—Children prohibited

A person responsible for a gambling machine shall not permit a child to use the gambling machine or to enter a place where the gambling machine is operated.

Section 49—Forfeiture of unlicensed machines

A gambling machine which is in the country at the commencement of this Act shall be forfeited to the State unless within twenty-eight days from the commencement, the owner of the machine applies for a licence under section 43 and pays the specified licence fee.

Section 50—Forfeiture of illegally imported machine

A gambling machine which is illegally imported into the country whether before or after the commencement of this Act shall be forfeited to the State.

Section 51—Forfeiture of machine of which owner cannot be found

(1) Where the ownership of a gambling machine is uncertain, unknown or cannot be determined, the Board may order an inspector or police officer to seize the machine.

(2) A seized gambling machine shall be forfeited to the State, unless within thirty days of the seizure it is claimed by a person who establishes to the satisfaction of the Board that that person is the owner of the machine.

Section 52—Seizure in case of suspected offence

Where it is suspected that an offence has been committed in relation to a gambling machine, the Board may order an inspector or a police officer to seize the machine.

Section 53—Disposal of seized and forfeited machines

(1) A gambling machine which is seized under sections 51 and 52 shall be kept in the custody of the police until the Board otherwise directs.

(2) A gambling machine which is forfeited under this Act may be seized by an inspector or a police officer at any time and at any place and shall be delivered immediately to the Commission.

(3) A gambling machine which is forfeited under this Act shall be disposed of in a manner that the Board directs.

Section 54—Further powers of the Board

(1) The Board may at any time order a person to remove a gambling machine from a place which the Games Commissioner considers to be unsuitable for the operation of the machine.

(2) Where the Board refuses to grant a licence for a gambling machine under section 43, the Board may order a person to remove the machine, deliver and place it in the custody of the police.

(3) A gambling machine in police custody under subsection (2) shall be kept by the police until the owner of the machine disposes of the machine to a person approved by the Board under section 42 or until the Board otherwise directs.

Section 55—Defective machine not to be used

(1) A person shall not operate or permit another person to use a defective gambling machine.

(2) Where a gambling machine becomes defective, the person in charge of the operation of that machine shall immediately seal the slot or other apparatus for the insertion of money into the machine in a manner that prevents the use of the machine by a member of the public.

(3) For the purpose of this section, a gambling machine is defective if

- (a) it fails to pay prize money,
- (b) it fails to pay the correct amount of prize money,
- (c) its operations fail to comply with a requirement in Regulations made under this Act, or
- (d) its normal operations are impaired in any other manner.

Section 56—Offences in relation to gambling machines

(1) A person who

- (a) imports a gambling machine without the written consent of the Board;
- (b) sells, lets on hire or in any way disposes of a gambling machine or an interest in a gambling machine without the written consent of the Board;
- (c) installs or operates a gambling machine without the licence required under section 43;
- (d) contravenes or fails to comply with any of the terms or conditions of a licence granted under section 43;
- (e) obstructs or frustrates lawful seizure of a gambling machine under this Act;
- (f) fails to comply with an order of the Board given under section 54;
- (g) operates or permits another person to use a defective gambling machine contrary to section 55; or
- (h) wilfully alters a gambling machine to render it defective within the meaning of section 55(3)

commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than one thousand penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than three years or both.

(2) A person who permits a child to use a gambling machine or to enter a place in which a gambling machine is used commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than twelve months or both.

(3) A child who uses a gambling machine, or enters a place in which a gambling machine is used, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction by a juvenile court to a fine of not more than one hundred penalty units or a custodial sentence that the court determines.

Section 57—Exemptions

The Board may grant an exemption in writing from any provision of this Act in respect of a gambling machine operated by a private association or club where the Board is satisfied that the machine is used only by the members of that association or club and that the application of a provision of this Act might cause hardship.

PART III—CASINO

Section 58—Casino to operate as a club

- (1) A casino shall be licensed under section 16 and shall operate as a club.
- (2) The rules of the club may provide for permanent and temporary membership and shall be submitted by the licensee for approval by the Board.
- (3) The following persons are not eligible for membership of the club:
 - (a) a child;
 - (b) a member of the judiciary including a person in any way serving in a judicial capacity;
 - (c) a member of the Armed Forces;

(d) a member of the Public Service, including the Police Service and service with a regional administration or district assembly.

Section 59—Powers of the Board in relation to casino

The Board may impose additional terms and conditions in respect of the application for grant of licence for a casino under section 16 that the Board considers appropriate.

Section 60—Display of Licence

(1) A notice that a casino is licensed under this Act shall be prominently displayed in the casino.

(2) The notice shall include reference to the games of chance authorised under the licence, the maximum percentage of commission to be deducted in play and the odds to be paid as appropriate.

Section 61—Restriction

A person or body of persons shall not use the word "casino" in conjunction or as part of that person's or that body's name without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 62—Offences in relation to casino

A person who

- (a) operates a casino without the licence required under this Act;
 - (b) contravenes a term or condition of a licence granted under this Act;
 - (c) admits a person declared by section 58(3) to be ineligible for membership as a member;
 - (d) fails to display a notice as required by section 60(1), or fails to display in the notice the particulars required by section 60(2);
 - (e) obstructs a person lawfully authorised to inspect a casino under section 27; or
 - (f) uses the word "casino" as part of a business name without the written consent of the Board
- commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than one thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term of not more than three years or both.

General offences and penalties in relation to a licence

Section 63—Operation of game of chance without licence

(1) A person who operates a game of chance at a club which is not a casino without a valid licence to do so commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not less than one thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term of not less than three years or both.

(2) Where an offence is committed under subsection (1), or under section 61 by a company each director of the company is liable to the penalty provided in that subsection unless the director proves that the offence was committed without the director's consent or connivance and that the director exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as the director ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of the functions of the director and the circumstances.

Section 64—Broadcast and publication of game results

(1) A company that operates a game under sections 28 and 29 shall not publish or broadcast or cause to be published or broadcast the results of the game without the authorization of the Board.

(2) A company that contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and each director of the company is deemed to have committed the offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty penalty units or a term of imprisonment of not more than twelve months or both unless the director proves that the offence was committed without the director's consent or connivance and that the director exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence that the director ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of the functions of the director and the circumstances.

Administration, finance and miscellaneous matters

Section 65—Games Commissioner

(1) The President shall, in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution appoint a chief executive of the Gaming Commission who shall be known as the Games Commissioner.

(2) The Games Commissioner shall

(a) subject to the direction of the Board on matters of policy, be responsible for the day-to-day administration of the office of the Gaming Commission, and

(b) perform other functions determined by the Board.

(3) The Games Commissioner shall hold office on the terms and conditions specified in the letter of appointment.
