REPUBLIC OF GHANA

FIVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-THREE ACT
OF THE PARLIAMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA
ENTITLED
THE IMMIGRATION ACT, 2000

AN ACT to re-enact with amendments the law relating to immigration; to provide for the admission, residence, employment and removal of foreign nationals and to provide for related matters.

DATE OF ASSENT: 2nd February, 2000

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows

PART I—ENTRY AND DEPARTURE

Section 1—Disembarkation.

A person in charge of a sea-going vessel, aircraft or vehicle arriving at any port or place in Ghana shall not permit a passenger who embarked outside Ghana to disembark until disembarkation has been authorised by the immigration officer.

Section 2—Appearance Before Immigration Officer on Entering Ghana.

(1) A person entering Ghana shall enter at an authorised point and shall proceed to the nearest immigration office, produce his travel document and complete the prescribed forms.

(2) A person who arrives by sea or air in Ghana at a place other than an authorised place or port, shall within forty-eight hours proceed to and report to the immigration officer at the nearest immigration post.

(3) An immigration officer to whom a person reports in accordance with this section shall, if the person is not prohibited from entering Ghana, and he is satisfied by documentary or other evidence of the person's identity grant that person entry subject to this Act.

(4) An immigration officer may dispense with the personal attendance of any person if he is satisfied by documentary or other evidence of that person's identity and right to enter Ghana.

(5) This section does not apply to any person who enters Ghana in direct transit to a place outside Ghana where that person arrives in:

(a) a vessel which is proceeding to a place outside Ghana and does not disembark from the vessel;

(b) an aircraft, and does not leave the transit area of the airport and leaves Ghana within twenty-four hours of arrival on the same aircraft or another aircraft; or

(c) a vehicle or vessel or aircraft and is escorted by an immigration officer from the point of entry to the exit point, and leaves Ghana within forty-eight hours of arrival.

(6) Any person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five million cedis or imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both.

(7) Subject to this Act, Regulations may provide for passengers in transit without entry visa to enter Ghana for the purpose of seeing places of interest.

Section 3—Illegal Place of Entry and Border-Resident.

(1) A person shall not enter Ghana except by one of the approved places of entry into Ghana.

(2) For the purposes of this section, an approved place of entry is—

(a) a place in Ghana in respect of which landing or docking rights have been granted to an aircraft or vessel; or

(b) a place specified in the Schedule to this Act.

(3) The Minister in consultation with the Immigration Service Board may by legislative instrument amend the Schedule to this Act.

(4) Regulations may be made under this Act to provide for free movement across the border of a border-resident for the purpose of attending to his routine economic or social matters.

(5) Without prejudice to any other penalty imposed by or under this Act a person who contravenes a provision of this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not less than one million cedis or to a term of imprisonment of not less than three months and not exceeding twelve months or to both

Section 4—Conditions for Entry into Ghana.

(1) Subject to this Act where an immigration officer is satisfied that a person other than a citizen of Ghana entering Ghana;

(a) is in possession of a valid passport or other travel document and a valid visa to enter Ghana where applicable;

(c) has his name endorsed upon a visa and is in the company of the holder of the visa;

(d) has applied and been granted an emergency entry permit; or

(e) is a person admitted to diplomatic status by the Government of Ghana, the immigration officer may permit that person to enter Ghana for a period that may be specified.

(2) A prohibited immigrant within the meaning of section 8 shall not be permitted to enter Ghana.

(3) Where a person who appears before an immigration officer does not have a visa or an emergency entry permit, the immigration officer may grant him a visa subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by Regulations, and to such other conditions that the immigration officer may impose.

(4) Conditions prescribed for the purpose of this section may relate to—

(a) security to be furnished whether by bond, deposit or otherwise, and the liability of the person who provides the security;

(b) place of residence in Ghana;

(c) occupation or business to be followed or undertaken;

(d) any activities which might offend the religious beliefs of any section of the community;

(e) in the case of permission for passing through Ghana, the route to be followed; and

(f) in the case of any condition or permit in the form of a pass, the return of the pass.

Section 5—Re-entry Visa.

(1) Where a person lawfully in Ghana who is not—

(a) a citizen of Ghana; or

(b) the holder of residence permit, seeks to leave Ghana temporarily he may apply to the Director in the prescribed manner for a re-entry visa authorizing him to re-enter Ghana.

(2) Upon application made under sub-section (1) and the payment of the prescribed fee, the Director may issue to the applicant a re-entry visa to be stamped in the applicant's passport or other travel document and this shall be valid until it expires or is cancelled.

Section 6—Power to Make Enquiries.

The Director or any immigration officer authorised by him may before the issue of any permit or visa under this Act make enquiries or require the production of evidence in order to satisfy himself as to the truth of any statement made in the application for the permit.

Section 7—Power to Detain a Person for Further Examination.

(1) Where an immigration officer is in doubt as to the right of any person to enter Ghana, the officer may send that person to be detained and that person shall remain in custody pending the determination of the matter.

(2) The Director may pending the completion of enquiries in respect of a detained person, release that person from custody upon such directions as he may determine and may for that purpose, issue a temporary permit to that person.

(3) A person who refuses or neglects to comply with a direction given by an immigration officer under sub-section (1) or who leaves the detention area in contravention of sub-section (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five million cedis or imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or both.

- (b) he has been found by a court to be destitute or without means of support or to be of unsound mind or mentally handicapped;
- (c) he is a prohibited immigrant;
- (d) he is in Ghana without a valid permit, or any of the conditions on which his permit was granted has been broken; or
- (e) his presence in Ghana is in the opinion of the Minister not conducive to the public good.

(2) A recommendation for deportation is effective if it is made by a court upon conviction for an offence punishable by a term of imprisonment exceeding three months with or without a fine and

- (a) on an appeal against the conviction, the appellate court has upheld the recommendation; or
- (b) no appeal has been brought within the time allowed for appeal but the recommendation was made by—
 - (i) the High Court, or
 - (ii) an inferior court and has been approved by the Chief Justice.

(3) Where a court makes a finding under paragraph (b) of subsection (1), the court shall report the finding in writing to the Minister.

Section 36—Deportation Order.

- (1) The Minister may by executive instrument order the deportation of any person liable to deportation.
- (2) The order may be made subject to such conditions as the Minister may impose.
- (3) A deportation order may include the dependants of the person to be deported if the Minister so directs.

Section 37—Effect of Deportation Order.

- (1) A person to be deported shall leave Ghana in accordance with the requirements of the deportation order and shall so long as the deportation order is in force remain out of Ghana.
- (2) A person who enters Ghana when a deportation order made against him is in force commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding five years and may be deported without any further deportation order being made.

(3) Where a person to be deported is serving a sentence of imprisonment, he shall unless the Minister otherwise directs, complete the sentence.

Section 38—Power to Arrest.

(1) A person, other than a person under a supervision order issued under section 40 of this Act, who is to be deported or who is liable to deportation may be arrested and detained by the Director under the authority of the Minister until that person is dealt with under subsection (3).

(2) A person to be deported may be conducted in custody to or from any consulate or other place in Ghana if the attendance of that person is required for the purposes of ascertaining his nationality or of making arrangements for his admission to another country.

(3) A person who is to be deported from Ghana may be placed on board a suitable vessel or aircraft by an immigration officer and may be lawfully detained on board the vessel or aircraft, whilst the vessel or aircraft is within the territorial limits of Ghana.

Section 39—Power to Record Identification.

An immigration officer may where a person to be deported is in custody, do all things reasonably necessary for the identification of that person by means of photography, measurement and the taking of fingerprints.

Section 40—Supervision Order.

(1) If, on the expiration of six months from the making of a deportation order, deportation has not been effected, or if, at any time before the expiration of that period, the Minister is satisfied that deportation is for any reason impracticable, or undesirable he may by executive instrument make a further order, to be known as supervision order, with respect to the person to be deported, requiring that person, while in Ghana to observe any conditions specified in the order as to:

- (a) the area in which he is to reside;
- (b) the carrying on by him of political activities;
- (c) reporting to the immigration officer and the police from time to time;
- (d) the means by which he may gain a livelihood; and
- (e) his association with a person with criminal record.

(2) The period of six months in subsection (1) shall in respect of a person serving a term of imprisonment be computed from the end of the term.

(3) A person in respect of whom a supervision order is in force who fails to comply with the requirement of that order, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not less than five hundred thousand cedis or to imprisonment for a term of not less than two months, or both.

(4) The operation of a deportation order made in respect of any person shall be suspended while a supervision order is in force in relation to that person, but shall revive if the Minister so directs and in that event the supervision order shall cease to have effect.

(5) Subject to subsection (4), a supervision order made in respect of any person shall expire after a period of two years from the date of the order and on the expiration of the supervision order, the deportation order made in respect of that person, shall also expire.

Section 41—Expenses of Deportation.

(1) The Director may apply any money or property that belongs to a person to be deported in payment of the deportation expenses.

(2) The person in charge, the owner and the agent of a vessel, aircraft or vehicle from which any person disembarks in Ghana shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the deportation expenses of that person to the Director if that person

(a) was a member of a crew of the vessel of aircraft and was left in Ghana in contravention of section 42 of this Act; or

(b) is a prohibited immigrant and the Minister has made a deportation order in respect of him, or has been directed to leave Ghana under section 8(4) of this Act.

(3) A person other than a person to whom subsection (2) applies, who is concerned in or connected with the bringing into Ghana of a prohibited immigrant of the description set out in section 8(1) of this Act shall be liable to pay to the Director the deportation expenses of that person.

PART IV—EXEMPTION, DETENTION AND PETITION

Section 42—Exemption of Crew Entering Ghana.

(1) The members of the crew of a vessel or aircraft arriving in Ghana from abroad may be permitted to enter Ghana on satisfactory proof of their identity notwithstanding that they may not have passports, visas, or permits.

(2) No member of the crew of a vessel or aircraft shall be discharged or left behind in Ghana without the consent of an immigration officer.

(3) This section does not apply to a member of the crew of a vessel or aircraft who is a citizen of Ghana.

Section 43—Liability of Master or Other Person For Detention Expenses.

(1) Where any person is in immigration custody under this Act, the master, owner, charterer and agent of the vessel or aircraft which brought that person to Ghana shall be jointly and severally liable for all expenses incurred in the detention and maintenance of that person, except that no liability is incurred where any person detained is subsequently permitted to enter Ghana.

(2) Any expenses to be paid under subsection (1), shall be recoverable as a debt due to the Government of Ghana from the master, owner, charterer and agent of the vessel or aircraft jointly and severally.

Section 44—Power to Search Vessel or Aircraft.

An immigration officer may, for the purpose of satisfying himself whether there is a person he may wish to examine, search any vessel or aircraft and anything on board it or any vehicle taken off a vessel or aircraft.

Section 45—Offence in Ghanaian Territorial Zone.

(1) Where a foreign national is charged with an offence alleged to have been committed aboard a vessel or an aircraft in Ghanaian territorial waters or airspace, the court may—

(a) on convicting the person charged, order that on the expiration of the sentence, or on the sooner readiness of the vessel to proceed to sea or the aircraft to take off, the person be held in custody aboard the vessel or aircraft for conveyance from Ghana; or

(b) on discharging or acquitting the person charged, order that the person be immediately conveyed back to the vessel or aircraft.

Section 46—Submission of Petitions.

(1) Any person other than a prohibited immigrant aggrieved by a—

(a) refusal to grant or renew a permit under this Act;

(b) revocation of a permit under this Act; or

(c) repatriation ordered by an immigration officer may submit a petition to the Minister within seven days of such action and the Minister shall subject to subsection (3) take such action as he considers appropriate.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a deportation order issued under an executive instrument under the hand of the Minister.

(3) The Minister shall in determining a petition under subsection (1) be assisted by a committee comprising the following persons

(a) a representative of the Attorney-General not below the rank of a Senior State Attorney, who shall be the chairman of the committee;

(b) a representative of the Minister for Foreign Affairs not below the rank of a Director; and

(c) one other person appointed by the Minister who shall not be an officer or employee of the Immigration Service.

Section 47—Petition not to Act as Stay of Action.

(1) A petition to the Minister under section 46 shall not act as a stay of the action which has been petitioned against.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section Regulations may provide for conditions in which a person may be permitted to stay in Ghana pending the hearing of a petition made by that person.

PART V—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS AND OFFENCES

Section 48—Refugees.

The Director upon the recommendation of the Refugee Board shall issue any relevant immigrant document in respect of a refugee in Ghana.

Section 49—Prohibited Areas.

(1) The Minister may by legislative instrument declare some areas in Ghana as prohibited to foreign nationals.

(2) A foreign national shall not enter or remain in areas prohibited to foreigners unless he has a valid prohibited area permit granted by the appropriate authority.

(3) A permit granted under subsection (2) shall be subject to such conditions as may be specified in the permit and prescribed by Regulations made under section 55 of this Act, and shall be in a prescribed form.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is on summary conviction liable to a term of imprisonment of not less than three months or to a fine of not less than five hundred thousand cedis or to both.
