ACT 302

PUBLIC CONVEYANCING ACT, 1965¹

AN ACT to provide for the declaration of a selected area, the granting of land in such area, and matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

1. Declaration of selected area

(1) Where it appears to the President in the public interest so to do, the President may by executive instrument declare an area of state or stool land to be a selected area, and, accordingly, on the making of the instrument, that area shall for the purposes of this Act be a selected area and titles to land therein shall be granted as prescribed under this Act.

(2) Subject to article 267 of the Constitution, where a stool land in respect of which an executive instrument is made under subsection (1) of this section, has not been vested in the President under section 7 of the Administration of Lands Act, 1962 (Act 123), the instrument in respect of that land shall have the same effect as an instrument made under the section 7.

2. President to grant land in selected area to certain persons

(1) Unless as otherwise provided in article 267 of the Constitution and in this Act, the President on recommendation by the Minister shall grant land in a selected area, on the terms and conditions that the President thinks fit to the following persons and no others:

- (a) persons deprived of the use land by reason of a natural catastrophe;
- (b) persons deprived of the use of land by reason of the application of the provisions of any other enactment;

1. The Act was assented to on 29th September, 1965, and was notified in the Gazette on 8th October, 1965.

- (c) persons deprived of the use of land in the town of Tema and resettled in the Tema acquisition area;
- (d) persons desirous of settling in a planned irrigation area;
- (e) persons deprived of the use of land by reason of a slum clearance scheme;
- (f) persons affected by re-adjustment of boundaries of land within an area under an enactment relating to town and country planning;
- (g) persons desirous of acquiring land within a planned housing area;
- (h) persons desirous of settling in a land reclamation area;
- (i) persons desirous of carrying out husbandry, including animal husbandry, in a planned land area.

(2) A person to whom a grant of land is made shall not transfer the grant to any other person, except with the written consent of the Minister, and, subject to the condition that the Minister may specify.

(3) The provisions of section 4 shall not apply to a transfer referred to in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Where any other enactment confers powers for the settlement or resettlement of persons on any other Minister or Council or a statutory corporation, grants under this section shall be made, if the powers for the settlement or resettlement of persons were conferred on

- (a) any other Minister, on the recommendation of that other Minister;
- (b) a Council, on the recommendation of the Minister responsible for Local Government; and
- (c) a statutory corporation, on the recommendation of the Minister responsible for that corporation.

3. Plan and Schedule to plan

(1) There shall be made a plan as prescribed of a selected area and there shall be specified in the prescribed manner on the plan a schedule setting out in entries the lands granted under section 2 and in corresponding entries the names of the grantees, the interests held by them in the land, the dates from which the grants take effect and any other particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) The Minister shall make an endorsement below the last entry that the particulars specified in the plan and the schedule to the plan are in accordance with the provisions of this Act and any other enactment in that behalf and are true and accurate and shall sign and date that endorsement.

(3) The Minister shall cause each plan of a selected area together with its schedule to be registered under the Land Registry Act, 1962 (Act 122), and the provisions of that Act shall with due alteration to the details, apply to the registration in like manner as those provisions apply to the registration of any other instrument.

(4) Where a plan of a selected area with its schedule is registered under subsection (3) of this section, a copy, an extract or a certificate of registration purporting to be signed by a registrar within the meaning of the that Act, or made in the prescribed manner shall be receivable in a Court as evidence of the particulars specified therein without further or other proof, unless it is proved to be a forgery.

4. Grants of land to other persons

(1) Where a land in a selected area remains vacant, the President may grant land in that area to a person, subject to the conditions determined by the President, including the payment of rent, but the provisions of section 3 shall not apply to those grants.

(2) Grants made under subsection (1) of this section shall be made in accordance with the appropriate provisions of the Administration of Lands Act, 1962 (Act 123) and the State Lands Act, 1962 (Act 125) and any of the statutory instruments made under those Acts.

5. Regulations

Regulations may be made by the Minister by legislative instrument in respect of the matters that are authorised or required by this Act to be prescribed and for the purposes of carrying out the principles and provisions of this Act.

6. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,
